Sequence of Learning and Key Questions

Session 1	Timeline interpretation, what do we already know? What do we know about BSE? To find out why St Edmund is a local historical legend?
Session	Comparison of past and present photos, the
2	history of the Abbey, the Magna-Carta
	How has Bury St Edmunds changed over time?
	Using skills of comparison.
Session	Tour of the Abbey Gardens with guide
3	What else do we know about changes at the Abbey? How did these affect the town of Bury St Edmunds?
Session	A look a the history of Guildhall Feoffment
4	Community School How has the school changed over the years? comparison
Session	Revision and end of unit test

Our school in the 1800's

Key Vocabulary

timeline Sequence of chronological events. primary An account of events from source someone who was there. historical Belonging to the past. modern Relating to the present. artefact An item from the past that is still here today. first-hand Something you experience for yourself. change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. continue To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between two or more things.
primary source Someone who was there. historical Belonging to the past. modern Relating to the present. artefact An item from the past that is still here today. first-hand Something you experience for yourself. change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	chronological	The order of events in time order.
source someone who was there. historical Belonging to the past. modern Relating to the present. An item from the past that is still here today. first-hand Something you experience for yourself. change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	timeline	Sequence of chronological events.
historical Belonging to the past. modern Relating to the present. artefact An item from the past that is still here today. first-hand Something you experience for yourself. change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. continue To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	primary	An account of events from modern Relating to the present. An item from the past that is still here today. Something you experience for yourself. Change When something becomes different. Evidence Something that shows you what might be true. The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	source	someone who was there.
artefact An item from the past that is still here today. Something you experience for yourself. Change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	historical	Belonging to the past.
first-hand Something you experience for yourself. change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	modern	Relating to the present.
here today. Something you experience for yourself. Change When something becomes different. Evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	artefact	An item from the past that is still change When something becomes different. evidence Something that shows you what might be true. Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	arteract	here today.
contrasting different. Something that shows you what might be true. The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	first-hand	• • • • evidence Something that shows you what might be true. The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	chango	When something becomes
Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	Change	different.
Abbey The building occupied by a community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	evidence	Something that shows you what continue community of monks or nuns. To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	evidence	might be true.
continue To keep happening, to last for a long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	Ahhey continue long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Contrasting Showing the differences between	Abbey	community of monks or nuns.
long time. To note what is the same or different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	continue	To keep happening, to last for a comparing different between two or more things. Showing the differences between	continue	long time.
things. Showing the differences between Showing the differences between	comparing
I CONTRACTING I
two or more things.	contrasting	_
		two or more things.

Statue of St Edmund next to St Edmundsbury Cathedral

Timeline of Events for St Edmund

CE 855
Edmund becomes king

CE 869 CE 20th Nov 869 The raiding

army rode King Edmund through killed by Mercia into these Danish East Anglia invaders

CE 930

King Edmund canonised (made a saint)

CE 930

King Edmund's body moved to Beodericswort

CE 1020

King Cnut builds stone church for Saint Edmund's body

CE 1020

Pilgrimages from Europe to visit St Edmund's shrine church

CE 1095

St Edmund's body moved to newly built great Abbey

CE 1095

St Edmund's shrine becomes one of the most famous pilgrimages

CE 1214

Magna-Carta established at the Abbey

CE 1400's

Guildhall Feoffment Trust established by Jankyn Smythe

From King Edmund to Saint Edmund

Abbey Gardens now

The Abbeygate, Bury St Edmunds

The Magna-Carta created at the Abbey in 1214

Bury St Edmunds takes its name from King Edmund, the original patron Saint of England and King of East Anglia.

Map of Anglo-Saxon Britain

